

The Chinese University of Hong Kong

Applications are invited for:-

School of Hotel and Tourism Management Assistant Professor / Research Assistant Professor (Ref: 210001U6) (Closing date: December 15, 2021)

The School of Hotel and Tourism Management under the CUHK Business School is now inviting applications for the position of Assistant Professor or Research Assistant Professor in real estate. Applications from qualified scholars with a focus on either real estate finance and/or urban economics will be considered. Individuals with expertise/knowledge in Prop Tech and analytics are especially encouraged to apply.

Applicants should be promising or established scholars with a PhD degree (or one that is close to completion) in real estate or a related field. The appointee will mainly conduct high quality research and publish in top-tier mainstream finance and economics journals, and top-tier real estate and urban economics journals. In addition, they may undertake duties to teach basic and advanced level real estate and/or real estate related finance courses at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels, and to render services to the School of Hotel and Tourism Management to advance its real estate communities.

Appointment will initially be made on contract basis for up to three years commencing August 2022, which, subject to demonstration of the requisite level of performance and mutual agreement, may lead to a longer-term appointment or substantiation later.
