

2026 – Pipeline Scholars Program

Accelerating the Pathway to a Ph.D.

Are you interested in pursuing graduate studies in real estate or urban economics? The Pipeline Scholars Program is designed to help you take that next step. We invite college students and recent graduates to join us at the AREUEA National Conference in Washington, DC, May 27–29, 2026, along with a dedicated day of exclusive Pipeline Scholar programming designed to introduce you to graduate education, connect you with leading scholars, and expand your professional network.

- ◆ Explore the lifestyle of a Ph.D. and associated career opportunities.
- ◆ Connect with AREUEA members for admissions guidance and graduate school options.
- ◆ Build a network of aspiring and active doctoral students and professional researchers.
