

CALL FOR PAPERS FOR
2016 AREUEA International Conference
July 6 - 8, 2016
Alicante, Spain, EU

The American Real Estate and Urban Economics Association (AREUEA) is pleased to announce the 2016 AREUEA International Conference to be held in Alicante, Spain, EU, organized by the University of Alicante. Sessions will be held on 7-8 of July 2016 with a welcome reception 6 of July 2016. The conference will provide a forum for academics, practitioners, and policy makers to present research findings in the areas of real estate economics, real estate finance, urban economics, and other related areas.

The conference will offer a unique opportunity to network with leading academic and researchers in real estate and housing economics and finance, share research results; learn about new approaches, and the changing trends and global developments in the field of real estate and urban economics.

Contributions from a wide range of theoretical and empirical methodologies centred around research relevant to applied decision making in real estate finance and urban economics are welcomed.
