Location and Transports

Reading is a town situated only 25 minutes by train from central London, and it is at the heart of a land with several English and World Heritage Cities in reachable distance (around 1 hour): Oxford, Winchester (with King Arthur's Round Table), Stonehenge, Salisbury (with a stunning cathedral where one of the four remaining original copies of the Magna Carta is kept) and Bath (Roman city).

Several important local attractions are within a 30 minute journey from the venue: Windsor Castle (one of the Queen's main residences), Ascot Racecourse (probably the most famous in the UK) and Reading Abbey (founded by king Henry I in 1121).

Moreover, Reading is also well connected with major airports:

- Heathrow Airport, 30 minutes by car/express bus
- Gatwick Airport, around 1 hour by car or direct train
- London City, Luton and Stansted, reachable via Central London

The venue is only a 15 minute taxi ride from the train station in Reading town centre. During the two main days of the conference – 10 and 11 July – there will be a complimentary shuttle bus from/to the venue to/from the town centre in the morning and early afternoon.

Conference Venue

De Vere Hotel Wokefield Park (<http://www.deverevenues.co.uk/locations/wokefield-park.html>)

Set in 250 acres of landscaped grounds, Wokefield Park blends the grandeur of a traditional mansion with a modern executive venue. The conference will be based at the Executive Centre, with Welcome Evening Reception being held at the Mansion House (see picture).

The hotel also has swimming pool, spa and a Championship golf course for people who may wish to relax for a couple of days before or after the conference. Free internet access is also guaranteed through the stay.

The room will be bookable using a promotion code via the hotel website directly. If you prefer to experience a more luxurious and “English style” accommodation, you may want to go for rooms in the Mansion House, with prices kept at the normal rate (see hotel website).

N.B.: If you are interested in organizing a special session/panel discussion, please make your suggestion by sending an email to areuca2014@reading.ac.uk
