

18th Annual AREUEA Doctoral Session "Real Estate Careers, 2005"

- What? The AREUEA Invitational Doctoral Session will assist students in real estate and related fields with career planning. Selected students can present their work and all participants can network with peers, journal editors, established Ph.D.s and potential mentors. Student poster session presenters receive a three year complementary AREUEA membership.
- When & Where? Thursday, January 6, 2005, 4:00-7:30pm. Reception starts at 5:00. Philadelphia, PA. Loews Philadelphia Hotel, Commonwealth B
- Format? A "Poster Session" will follow brief comments by leaders in the field. Students presenting their work will prepare a display (poster, battery-powered computer screens, tables and/or charts) highlighting motivation, methods and major conclusions from their research. They will stand by their display to discuss their research with attendees. The reception will attract an audience!

How to Attend? A faculty member should nominate doctoral students wishing to present a paper. The Nomination Form, next page, should be completed and e-mailed no later than October 15, 2004, to:
