

23rd Annual AREUEA Doctoral Session 2010

What

The AREUEA Doctoral Session provides students in real estate and related fields with insights to topics such as career planning, publishing, and research. Selected students can present their work and all participants can network with peers, journal editors, established Ph.D.s and potential mentors. Student poster session presenters receive a three year complementary AREUEA membership which includes a subscription to Real Estate Economics.

When

Saturday, January 2, 2010, 5:00 p.m.- 8:00 p.m. A general reception starts at 6:00pm.

Where

Hilton Atlanta (Room: Grand Salon C)

Format

The poster session will follow comments by leaders in the field. Students presenting their work will prepare a display (poster, battery-powered computer screens, figures, tables and charts) highlighting the motivation, methods and major conclusions from their doctoral research. The students will stand by their display to discuss their research with attendees. The reception will attract an audience!

To Apply

All applications must be made via the AREUEA website. An online application form has been provided along with other conference details (<http://www.areuea.org/conferences/application.phtml>). All applications must be received no later than October 19, 2009.

Doctoral Session Chair

David H. Downs, Ph.D.
The Alfred L. Blake Chair, Professor of Real Estate
Director, The Kornblau Institute
Virginia Commonwealth University
Richmond VA USA

Funding

AREUEA has funds available to defray some travel costs for students who do not have other means of support (e.g., doctoral program travel funds from your school, etc.). Certain limits apply to travel awards. The maximum award for any individual is $ 1,000. There is one lifetime award per student. Award priority will be extended to those students presenting in the poster session and whose academic advisor is a current AREUEA member. Funds are distributed after the conference upon receipt of travel receipts.